

Chuck Weaver's passion is helping organizations and people have a better future. He has developed skills to support that passion through a history of mentoring young people and serving on numerous nonprofit and corporate boards. He is currently serving as Chairman of the United States Polo Association, Chairman of the 3 state Heartland Young Life Committee, as an At-Large Councilperson on the Peoria City Council, and is a Member of the Board of Directors at First State Bank and is on the Board of Directors of RMH Foods. In the past Chuck has served as President of the American Kentucky Fried Chicken Franchisee Association, President of The Youth Farm and Founding President of the Central Illinois Angels.

Chuck has his BS in Management from Bradley and a Law Degree from DePaul University.

Chuck was the President of Weaver Enterprises, a Kentucky Fried Chicken Franchisee from 1992-2003. His main focus today is Commercial Real Estate and Residential and Multifamily development. He has been an active part of over 25 LLC's, some he purchased as existing businesses and others were his own startups or startups he invested in.

Chuck attacks life with the simple philosophy that each of us needs to “leave things better than we find them.”
