

Joe Strupek, CPCU, CLU, is assistant vice president – Public Affairs at State Farm® Corporate Headquarters in Bloomington, Ill.

In his career with State Farm Strupek has held various positions in the Claims, Learning and Development , Executive, and Public Affairs departments. His current responsibilities include internal and strategic communications, social media, issues management, and he serves as the Brand Director.

Strupek has a bachelor’s degree from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. He is a member of the Public Relations Society of America, International Association of Business Communicators and has earned the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) designations. He’s also a member of the Board of Trustees for the Illinois Valley Public Telecommunications Corporation, WTVP, in Peoria, Ill, and currently serves as the board’s vice chair.